An Owl Sat Alone (on the Branch of a Tree)

traditional finger play with melody by Nancy Stewart

G C G
An owl sat alone on the branch of a tree
C G C D
And she was as quiet as quiet could be
G C G
'Twas night and her eyes were wide open like this
Em C G C D G
She looked all around, not a thing did she miss

G C G
Some little birds perched on the branch of the tree
C G C D
And they were as quiet as quiet could be
G C G
The solemn old owl said, "Whoo whoo whoo"
Em C G C D G
And up jumped the birds and away they all flew
